PUBLISHED UNDER RULE 382 OF THE RULES OF PROCEDURE AND CONDUCT OF BUSINESS IN LOK SABHA (FIFTH EDITION) AND PRINTED BY THE GENERAL MANAGER, GOVERNMENT OF INDIA PRESS, MINTO ROAD, NEW DELHI.

PREFACE

This publication attempts to present some of the varied activities of the Fourth Lok Sabha by means of statements and statistical tables.

Some of the interesting features included in the publication are those relating to the age and prior occupations of Members, the number and duration of the annual sittings of the House since 1929, volume of legislation passed since 1935, expenditure on Members, Member-wise analysis of admitted questions, number of visitors to the different galleries of the Lok Sabha etc.

The statements relating to Adjournment Motions, Calling-Attention Notices, Half-an-hour Discussions and Questions would show that a record has been set up by the Fourth Lok Sabha in these matters, as compared to the previous Lok Sabhas.

Another noteworthy event during the time of the Fourth Lok Sabha was the reprimand administered by the House to a civil servant. This is the first time in the life of Lok Sabha that the House called to its bar a government official for its breach of privilege and contempt and administered reprimand.

It is hoped that this publication will prove to be of interest to those engaged in the study of the Indian Parliament.

NEW DELHI;
2nd March, 1971

S. L. SHAKDHER.
Secretary, Lok Sabha.

FOURTH LOK SABHA

A GENERAL SURVEY

The Third Lok Sabha was dissolved on March 3, 1967 and the first sitting of the Fourth Lok Sabha was held on March 16, 1967. There were twelve sessions of the Fourth Lok Sabha covering a period of 655 days and the number of days on which the House actually sat was 469. The Fourth Lok Sabha was dissolved on December 27, 1970.

Compared with the earlier periods of the Central Legislative Assembly and the Constituent Assembly (Legislative), there has been a marked increase in the number of annual sittings and their duration from 1951 onwards, revealing an increasing tempo in the activities of the House during these years. Thus, from 1951 to 1970, the average annual duration of the sittings was 788.1 hours as against 337.2 hours between the years 1929 to 1950.

The Fourth Lok Sabha was in existence only for a period of 3 years 9 months and 10 days as against the normal span of 5 years. During its span, it held 469 sittings with a duration of 3029 hours and 24 minutes, as against 578 sittings of about 3,733 hours' duration of the Third Lok Sabha, 567 sittings of about 3,651 hours' duration of the Second Lok Sabha and 677 sittings of about 3,784 hours' duration of the First Lok Sabha. The average duration of a sitting during the Fourth Lok Sabha comes to 6 hours and 15 minutes, as compared with 6 hours and 27 minutes during the Third Lok Sabha, 6 hours and 26 minutes during the Second Lok Sabha and 5 hours and 25 minutes during the First Lok Sabha.

Age Distribution of Members

On the day of the first sitting of the Fourth Lok Sabha, the youngest Member was 25 years 7 months old and the oldest 84 years 7 months. The average age for the whole House was 48 years as against 48 years 10 months for the Third Lok Sabha, 46 years 4 months for the Second Lok Sabha and 45 years 8 months for the First Lok Sabha.

In the Fourth Lok Sabha, the maximum number of Members fell in the age group 50—55 years, whereas the age groups 40—45, 35—40 and 50—55 claimed the maximum numbers in the Third, Second and First Lok Sabhas respectively.

Occupational Pattern

In the Membership of the First and Second Lok Sabhas, lawyers had constituted the maximum number, their percentage to the total being 35.6 and 30.3 respectively. However, this category was relegated to the second position, with 24.5 per cent., in the Third Lok Sabha and to the third position with 17.5 per cent., in the Fourth Lok Sabha.

In the First and Second Lok Sabhas, the second largest category after the lawyers was that of agriculturists, including cultivators and land-lords, with a 22.4 and 29.1 per cent representation respectively. This category occupied the first position both in the Third Lok Sabha and the Fourth Lok Sabha, with 27.4 per cent and 30.6 per cent representation respectively.

Political and social workers increased their representation from the previous Lok Sabhas and occupied the second position in the Fourth Lok Sabha, accounting for 22.9 per cent of the Membership.

Among other categories which slightly increased their representation in the Fourth Lok Sabha from the previous Lok Sabhas were engineers and technologists, religious missionaries and artists. On the other hand, traders and industrialists, medical practitioners, journalists and writers had a reduced representation in the Fourth Lok Sabha as compared with previous Lok Sabhas.

Teachers and educationists, whose representation had gone down to 5.8 per cent in the Third Lok Sabha from 10.4 per cent and 10.2 per cent in the First and Second Lok Sabhas respectively, increased their representation slightly in the Fourth Lok Sabha, going up to 6.5 per cent.

President's Address to the House

Under Article 87(1) of the Constitution, the President addressed the two Houses four times viz. in the First, Fourth, Seventh and Tenth sessions of the Fourth Lok Sabha. The matters referred to in these Addresses were discussed in detail on each occasion on a Motion of Thanks. The total time involved in these discussions was 69 hours 36 minutes.

Time taken on various kinds of business

Of the total time of 3029 hours and 24 minutes taken by the House, legislative business (excluding budget) claimed the maximum—668 hours or 22.08 per cent as against 23 per cent in the Third Lok Sabha, 28.2 per cent in the Second Lok Sabha and 48.8 per cent in the First Lok Sabha.

The time involved in discussion on budget was 19.13 per cent of the total in Fourth Lok Sabha as against 25.00 per cent in the Third Lok Sabha, 20.9 per cent in the Second Lok Sabha and 18.5 per cent in the First Lok Sabha.

The percentage of time taken on questions during the Fourth Lok Sabha was 15.94 as against 15.1 in the Third and the Second and 14.6 in the First Lok Sabha.

The percentage of time taken on Resolutions in the Fourth Lok Sabha went up to 6.45 from 5.9 in the Third, 5.5 in the Second and 6.3 in the First Lok Sabha. The time taken on Motions in the Fourth Lok Sabha was 9.22 per cent as against 13.2 per cent in the Third, 13.7 in the Second and 7.1 in the First Lok Sabha. The remaining time was taken on Adjournment Motions, Calling Attention Notices, Half-an-Hour Discussions, Short Duration Discussion, Debates on President's Addresses, statements by Ministers and miscellaneous items.

Legislative Work

During the tenure of the Fourth Lok Sabha, a large number of legislative measures pertaining to administrative, financial, economic and social spheres were brought on the Statute Book. The number of enactments aggregated 216 of which 93 related to financial subjects. The Constitution was amended thrice vide the Constitution (Twenty-first Amendment), the Constitution (Twenty-Second Amendment), and the Constitution (Twenty-Third Amendment) Acts.

Among the important enactments in the administrative field, mention may be made of the Unlawful Activities (Prevention) Act, the Bihar and Uttar-Pradesh (Alteration of Territory) Act, the Enemy Property Act, the Madras State (Alteration of Name) Act, the Essential Services Maintenance Act, the Union Territories (Separation of Judicial and Executive Functions) Act, the President (Discharge of Functions) Act, the Assam Reorganisation (Meghalaya) Act and the State of Himachal Pradesh Act.

In the economic field, the important enactments passed were the Companies Tribunal (Abolition) Act, the Public Provident Fund Act, the Gold (Control) Act, the Banking Companies (Acquisition and Transfer of Undertakings) Act, the Monopolies and Restrictive Trade Practices Act and the Patents Act.

In the social and labour welfare fields, mention may be made of the Payment of Bonus (Amendment) Act, the Contract Labour (Regulation and Abolition) Act, the Registration of Births and Deaths Act and the Foreign Marriage Act.

In the field of defence, the important enactments were the Civil Defence Act and the Border Security Force Act.

Other notable pieces of legislation made by the Fourth Lok Sabha were the West Bengal Legislative Council (Abolition) Act, the Punjab Legislative Council (Abolition) Act and the North Eastern Council Act. Only 2 Acts initiated by Private Members were brought on the Statute Book, namely, the Indian Penal Code (Amendment) Act and the Supreme Court (Enlargement of Criminal Appellate Jurisdiction) Act.

Adjournment Motions

During the span of the Fourth Lok Sabha, notices of 1078 adjournment motions were received, of which 89, representing 8.5 per cent of the total, were brought before the House. Of these, 12 were admitted and discussed, making an average of one adjournment motion in each session. However, the second session claimed a large number of adjournment motions, accounting for as many as 6. These related to the food situation in the country, agitation by the Delhi Police, alleged failure of the Government to protect the Indian diplomatic personnel in Communist China, failure of the Government to prevent prorogation of the Madhya Pradesh Assembly by the Governor, incident in Tihar Jail, Delhi, on June 29, 1967 and the alleged failure of the Government to ensure safety from attacks by Naga hostiles in the border areas of Assam and Manipur.

The other adjournment motions discussed during the Fourth Lok Sabha related to alleged Police Raj in Delhi and manhandling of two U.P. Ministers; widespread resentment and outbreak of violence in Assam in connection with the reorganisation of that State; failure of the Government of India's foreign policy as evidenced from the Soviet Union agreeing to supply arms to Pakistan; railway accidents; Islamic Conference at Rabat and ejection of India from the Conference, and, lathi charge by Police at Patel Chowk, Parliament Street, New Delhi, on April 6, 1970, resulting in injuries to some M.Ps. and others.

Out of the 12 adjournment motions discussed, 11 were negatived and one was withdrawn by leave of the House.

No-Confidence Motions

During the span of the Fourth Lok Sabha, 8 No-Confidence Motions were brought before the House. Out of these 6 were admitted and discussed and leave of the House was not granted in respect of ~~two~~ one. All the No-Confidence Motions which were discussed were negatived by the House.

Calling Attention

A record number of 27,967 Calling Attention Notices on matters of urgent public importance under Rule 197 of the Rules of Procedure and Conduct of Business in Lok Sabha were received during the Fourth Lok Sabha. Of these, 4,355 notices were admitted representing 15 per cent of total received. In response to the notices admitted, 354 statements were made before the House by the Ministers concerned.

Motions

Several discussions on matters of public importance were raised during the Fourth Lok Sabha through motions under Rule 191 (No-day-yet-named Motions), Rule 193 (short duration discussions on matters of urgent public importance), Rule 342 (for taking into consideration a policy or a situation or a statement or any other matter) and rule 55 (half-an-hour discussion on a matter of sufficient public importance arising out of the answer to question put by a Member).

Thirty-one motions were discussed under Rule 191, 30 motions were discussed under Rule 342 and 66 motions under Rule 193. The number of half-an-hour discussions held under Rule 55 aggregated 183.

Among the important matters discussed through these motions, mention may be made of the following :national policy on education; industrial planning and licensing policy; entry of the armed forces of the U.S.S.R. and some Warsaw Pact Powers into Czechoslovakia; Draft Fourth Five Year Plan; communal situation in the country; Report of the Committee on Untouchability; economic and educational development of the Scheduled Castes; Report of the Commissioner for Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes; use of foreign funds in elections, and abolition of privy purses and privileges of former rulers. Several discussions were raised on the food situation, the drought situation and the flood situation prevailing in different parts of the country from time to time, both by Government as well as Private Members. Discussions were also raised a number of times on the law and order situation in the country, subversive activities by China and Pakistan and the international situation.

The Centre-State relations came under sharp focus and several discussions were raised during the Fourth Lok Sabha, relating in particular to the role of Governors vis-a-vis the State Legislatures.

The Lok Sabha called senior police and civilian officers to the bar of the House ~~to receive reprimand~~ for committing breach of privilege and contempt of the House.

On December 3, 1970, Shri K. Padmanabhan, Deputy Commissioner of Police, and Shri M. P. Choubey, Sub-Inspector of Police, Maharashtra, were summoned before the bar of the House to answer the charge of breach of privilege and contempt of the House for allegedly assaulting and abusing Shri K. M. Kaushik, a Member of Lok Sabha, at the Nagpur Railway Station on May 27, 1970. Both the officers tendered apologies, whereupon the House decided to treat the matter as closed.

On December 9, 1970, Shri S. C. Mukherjee, formerly Deputy Iron and Steel Controller, was summoned before the bar of the House and was reprimanded for having committed contempt of the House by having deliberately misrepresented facts and given false evidence before the Committee on Public Accounts. The House also recommended that the Government administer to Shri Mukherjee the maximum punishment under the law, in the light of the gravity of the offence, and report the same to the House.*

Resolutions

In all 79 Resolutions were discussed during the Fourth Lok Sabha as against 84 in the Third, 83 in the Second and 67 in the First Lok Sabha. Out of the 79 Resolutions, 7 were Government Resolutions all of which were adopted, 36 were Statutory Resolutions out of which 14 were adopted, and 36 were Private Members' Resolutions out of which 5 were adopted. The Private Members' Resolutions which were adopted related to the crossing of floor by legislators, implementation of Sahibi-nadi Scheme, quitting the Commonwealth, liberalisation movement in Czechoslovakia and the economic and social problems of West Bengal.

Questions

A total of 2,64,742 notices of Questions were received from Members during the Fourth Lok Sabha as against 1,62,334 notices received during the Third Lok Sabha, 1,33,328 during the Second Lok Sabha and 71,907 during the First Lok Sabha. The Joint Committee on Amendment to Election Law, the Railway Convention Committee and the Committee on Portraits and Statues in Parliament House held 1, 6 and 2 sittings respectively but did not present any reports]

Service to Members

During the Fourth Lok Sabha, detailed information was supplied to Members in connection with their Parliamentary work on 2925 references received from them. In addition, information was fnrished to Members orally on the spot on 3000 references. Further, in order to keep the Members abreast of current thought and events, the Library, Reference and Information Service of the Secretariat issued a number of periodicals and other publications. Three new periodicals were added during the Fourth Lok Sabha, viz. The Digest of World Events (Weekly), the Books of the Week (Weekly) and the Digest of News and Views on Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes (Monthly). The number of pages of the publications issued aggregated 17,846 (approx.)

In order to keep the Members informed of the latest developments in the national and international fields arrangements were made to display teleprinter news during sessions at short intervals near the Ground Floor Library. Teleprinter receivers, in English and Hindi, connected to the 'Press Trust of India' and 'the Samachar Bharati' respectively, are installed in the Parliament House for this purpose. The Hindi teleprinter was installed during the Fourth Lok Sabha in response to requests from Members for display of news in Hindi.

The Lok Sabha Secretariat looked after various other arrangements for the convenience and comfort of Members. Refreshment rooms serving lunch and light refreshments, a Coffee Buffet and a Tea Buffet are maintained in the Parliament House. In addition, the Delhi Milk Scheme runs a Milk Stall and a milk bar in Parliament House, where milk and milk products of the Delhi Milk Scheme are sold.

Under the Central Government Health Scheme, as extended to Members of Parliament, a Member and his/her family are entitled to free medical treatment on a monthly contribution of Rs. 4/-. Dispensaries for providing treatment mainly to members exist in the North Avenue, the South Avenue and in the Curzon Road Barracks. A First-Aid post for rendering medical aid in cases of emergency or sudden illness is also functioning in Parliament House.

The number of free telephone calls admissible to Members was increased to 5,400 per year from the previous 3,600. In addition, facilities were also provided for installation of a telephone at the usual place of residence of the Member or at a place selected by him within his constituency and calls up to 5,400 per year from that telephone were made free of charge.

30. FACILITIES PROVIDED TO PRESS CORRESPONDENTS

Press Gallery Facilities

The Gallery has seating accommodation for 98 correspondents, each seat having a loud speaker nearby. Seats in the first two rows, provided with small writing desks, are allotted to specific newspapers and news agencies in consultation with the Press Gallery Committee. Sixty-four head-phones connected with the Simultaneous Interpretation System are also provided in the Press Gallery.

Temporary passes are issued to visiting Indian and Foreign journalists desirous of watching the proceedings of the House.

Supply of Parliamentary Papers and Reference Facilities

In order to enable the Press Correspondents to follow the proceedings, necessary parliamentary papers and Bills as introduced in the House are provided to them.

Besides, a set of debates of the various sessions, reports of Parliamentary Committees, Papers Laid on the Table, Bulletins, etc, is maintained for their use. In addition, a small Press Library containing books generally needed by Press Correspondents, has also been provided.

Facilities in the Press Rooms

Three Press Rooms, provided with chairs and tables, have been set apart for correspondents of news agencies and leading newspapers to work and prepare their reports. Each room is provided with a telephone for the general use of the correspondents, in addition to telephone booths in these rooms which are allotted to specific newspapers and news agencies.

Issue of Press Releases

To help the correspondents in preparing their despatches on the reports presented to the House by various Parliamentary Committees, such as the Committee on Estimates, the Committee on Public Accounts and the Committee on Public Undertakings, Press Releases are issued by the Lok Sabha Secretariat highlighting the salient points in the recommendations/observations contained in the reports.

In addition, Press Releases are also issued at the end of every Session, giving a resume of the work done by Lok Sabha during the Session.

Press Releases are also issued regarding summoning and prorogation of the Sessions of Lok Sabha, meetings of Parliamentary Committees and Conferences and visits of Parliamentary delegations.
